

THE OLD SPAGHETTI FACTORY

Originally a Blacksmith Shop built in 1898, this huge old warehouse was converted into a 600 seat restaurant in 1971. Filled with a fabulous collection of antiques and truly unique artifacts and is now known as the famous Old Spaghetti Factory.

This unique restaurant is complete with high ceilings, skylights, antique elevator, streetcar, numerous interesting nooks and crannies, original stained glass windows from Europe, gas lamps, a 100 year old carousel and countless other intriguing antiques and artifacts (Ever dined in a streetcar or a king size bed?).

If this is not enough, add great food, affordable prices and fast and friendly service and you've got a truly entertaining and enjoyable dining experience.

In short, "You've gotta see it!"
